

Questions and Answers for the Household Travel Survey and Attitude and Perception Survey

Question 1: Can a firm choose to propose on only one portion of the project (Service A or Service B), or does every proposer have an obligation to submit a proposal encompassing both portions?

Answer: Every proposal submitted must be for both Service A and Service B. However, as part of a project team, different firms may complete different portions of the project.